Language Academy

LANGUAGE ACADEMY

The Language Academy at the Johor Bahru Campus and UTM International Campus in Kuala Lumpur offers courses to meet the language and communicative needs of the UTM students and staff, the public and the working professionals.

The Academy also offers postgraduate programs leading to the degree of Master and Doctor of Philosophy. These programs provide individuals with the opportunity to carry out original research into various areas of language and communication. The research experience will raise awareness of professionally related concerns and develop the ability to improve and make appropriate changes to current professional and communication practices.

Various services and facilities are available at the Academy such as foreign language courses, professional communication and training programmes, IELTS testing and training, Digital Language Labs, MyLinE (Online Resources for Learning in English) and UTM Test of English Communication Skills for Graduating Students (TECS).
