Course Synopsis

This short course is aimed to guide candidates on the examination format of IELTS and help them prepare by teaching them strategies, tips, and tricks on how to tackle each of the four parts of the examination. Indirectly, this course also aims to instill interest in English language learning among candidates, especially in their preparation for IELTS. A pre-test will be given to candidates at the beginning of the course to gauge their IELTS grade. The candidates will then be exposed to strategies to tackle the IELTS reading, listening, writing (part A & part B), and speaking. At the end of the course, candidates will have some knowledge of their IELTS level which they can use to prepare further by themselves for the IELTS examination.
