EDUCATING & HUMANIZING

ABOUT US

The Language Academy, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities (FSSH), initially known as the Department of Modern Languages, was established in April 2010 at the Johor Bahru Campus and UTM International Campus, Kuala Lumpur.

The Academy offers courses to meet the language and communicative needs of UTM students, working professionals and the public. Various services and facilities are available at the Academy such as academic language courses, foreign languages, professional communication and training programmes, IELTS training, digital language laboratories, MyLinE (online resources for learning in English), Japanese-language Proficiency Test (JLPT) and Test of English Communication Skills for Graduating Students (TECS).

Other services offered include proofreading, editing and translating a wide range of written materials like manuscripts, articles, pamphlets, thesis and more. Translations are usually from Malay to English, English to Malay, foreign languages to English or Malay, and vice-versa.

TESTIMONIALS

MLCDC changed me to be a better version of myself and has opened up a world of possibilities for me.

Nur Afifah Mohd Rosli,
Class of 2019

Being the first of its kind in Malaysia, MLCDC has exposed me to a world of fresh and relevant information pertinent to the digital era that we live in. Exploring authentic discourse in digital games and social media platforms help me understand that communication can go beyond face to face interaction

Nur Hazwani Mohd Muhridza,
Class of 2019

Doing my PhD at Language Academy allows me to gain more knowledge in my area of study through effective supervision, strong support system and culture of excellence at the faculty - everyone I met makes my PhD journey worthwhile!

Dr. Wan Farah Wani Fakhruddin,

My PhD journey was indeed challenging, but at the same time, it was very exciting and motivating. My experience at Language Academy, without any doubt, exceeded my expectations.

Dr Nur'ain Balqis Haladin,
Class of 2018
