

OUR TAGLINE

"EDUCATING & HUMANIZING"

Our tagline consists of two words that represent our brand promise. At the core of everything we do, whether through research, teaching, or community service, we are educators. The ultimate purpose of why we educate is based on the Malay concept of 'untuk menjadi orang', which literally means to become human. This concept is one that transcends the biological definition of being human, and embraces one where the term to become human means to embody all the virtues of humanity, and everything good that humanity stands for.
